Pecos, Tex. Sept. 20 .- Nothing in the form of new developments has been publicly expressed in regard to the Toyah oil well situation. It is known that the field has had many new visitors since the recent "gush." Although these visitors were information seekers, they falled to gain any information which might be considered of importance, but it is easily to be determined that the Texas company has no intention of abandoning the field at the present time, nor has it had such intentions, in view of the fact that it has had a large storage tank shipped for the storage of bil.

It would appear very unreasonable to believe that this corporation would ship such a large tank to lis field without having brilliant prospects of put-

The public in general is no longer in doubt about the efficiency of the well, although it is patiently waiting for the time that new developments will be made public. These developments which are expected at an eardate, it is believed, will incite much interest, and will be of the nature that will clearly set forth the attitude of the entire situation.

HEALTH LEAGUE TO

CLOSE ITS CLINIC County Is Operating in the Same Field, Hence Its

Retirement. The Health league has withdrawn from the charity field temporarily and will close its free clinic, which it has been conducting under the direction of Dr. C. M. Hendricks. This was deided upon at a meeting of the Health league Tuesday, followed by a con-ference between Dr. Hugh S. White, county physician, judge A. S. J. Eylar, county judge, who is in supervision of the county charity work, and Rev. Martin Zielonks, of the Health league.

The reason given by the league for its temporary withdrawal from
